

COMMUNITY EMERGENCY RESPONSE TEAM (CERT) TRAINING

City of Los Altos and
Santa Clara County Fire Department

What is CERT?

The CERT program educates participants about emergency preparedness and provides basic disaster response training (first aid, fire extinguishers, rescue skills, organizing resources) to assist others when first responders might not be immediately available to help.

CERT Training

CERT training is offered throughout the year. It's fun and a great way for neighborhoods and businesses to strengthen relationships that will be vital in responding to a disaster.

For additional information please visit

This course is intended for people who live or work within the communities of Campbell, Cupertino, Los Altos, Los Altos Hills, Los Gatos, Monte Sereno and Saratoga. Cost $35.

In the event of a disaster or large-scale emergency, public safety agencies will initially be overwhelmed by the demands placed upon personnel and resources. Infrastructure damage, fires, and medical emergencies represent only some of the situations needing a response.

How can you help? Join your local CERT!

People who are prepared in advance can work as a team providing essential services to their neighborhood and workplace during and after a disaster. By training as a CERT member you can play a vital role in your City's disaster response efforts.
